

FRANK T. CASTO

1 First Avenue
Chicago, IL 12345
555-123-4567 (Home)
555-234-5678 (Cell)
name@email.com

OBJECTIVE: To continue to use and develop shop supervising skills and previous work experience.

EMPLOYMENT: Maintenance Supervisor 2000
Sam Peters Transport

- Supervises all shop employees, sets work schedules, initiates and assigns work orders, maintains all records utilizing the Fleet Maintenance System (FMS), orders and stocks all needed tires and parts, negotiates outside contract labor (as needed), ensures OSHA safety standards are maintained, and inputs payroll.

Diesel Mechanic 1979-2000
Sam Peters Transport

- Performs duties such as engine and transmission rebuilding, hydraulic troubleshooting and repair, A/C systems, brakes, welding and structural repairs. Also, preceptor for new employees.

Fire Control Technician 1973-1976
United States Navy

- Responsible for the repair and maintenance of computer and radar systems used to direct the ships gunnery systems.

EDUCATION: Diesel and Heavy Equipment Certificate - 1979
Illinois State

- Comprehensive two-year study of engine principals, electrical systems, hydraulics and transmission rebuild, fuel systems, engine overhaul, and customer overhaul.

Fire Control Systems Class A School – 1974
United States Navy

- Six-month training school that included the study of basic electricity and electronics, trouble shooting and repair of radar and computer systems.

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE:

1998, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2009 - President Board Of Education
1995 – Present, Member Board of Education
1994 – Present, Deacon First Baptist Church
1997 – Present, Read Across America
2002 – Present, Mission Trip Volunteer
2001, Habitat for Humanity